PREMIERE GOLD MOVIE

UNFORGI

The opening scene of Unforgiven gets straight to the point. Real cowboys are rough trade. They're not the hat-tipping, strong, silent types that John Wayne portrayed. That's the point of this movie. The American West was a hard place – down and dirty, mean and unfair.

If anyone has the right to expose the west for what it really was, Clint Eastwood has. The star of nine other Western dramas, including A Fistful Of Dollars, The Good, The Bad, And The Ugly and Hang 'Em High, Eastwood has made Unforgiven his crowning achievement as an actor. The fact that he also directs this Oscar-winning film makes it even more of a victory.

To create one of the most authentic wild west movies ever produced, Eastwood insisted on the construction of a town which would realistically depict the 1880's. He personally chose the site for the town of Big Whiskey. Real cowboys were used as extras wherever possible and all indications of modern life were wiped from the landscape, for an uninterrupted 360-degree vista.

Shot on location in Alberta, Canada, and Sonora, California, Unforgiven provides a mercilessly unsentimental view of the wild west. It explores the struggle of William Munny (Clint Eastwood), a former gunfighter and thief. to come to terms with his past. Eastwood was drawn to the part because of the character's complexity. "He isn't one-dimensional," Eastwood explains, "he's been through it all, he survived, and now he's forced by circumstance to turn back to what he left. He's got kids and responsibilities and a debt of love for his wife. He gave her his word that he wouldn't pick up guns, but it's what he knows; it's the accident of who he is."

In pursuit of a lucrative bounty, Munny teams up with The Schofield Kid (Jaimz Woolvett) and his old partner Ned Logan (Morgan Freeman). According to The Schofield Kid, two men cut up a prostitute in a town called Big Whiskey. The sheriff of the town, Little Bill Daggett (Gene Hackman) let the cowboys off lightly, demanding only that they pay a fine of six horses to the whorehouse owner. Angry with this resolution, the other women in the house have scraped their savings together to put a five hundred dollar bounty on each of the offenders.

Another killer-for-hire attracted by the offer is English Bob, suavely played by Richard Harris. Impeccably dressed, and with pistol skills to match, English Bob's lethal flamboyance doesn't sit well with the town of Big Whiskey, and Little Bill Daggett soon makes his opinion of the elegant Bob very clear.

The events that take place in Big Whiskey lead to one final resolution of friendship, frontier law and revenge – a conclusion that separates Unforgiven from every other western you've ever seen. You won't forget this ending in a hurry!

Unforgiven is good and gritty. And not only for those with a penchant for cowboy movies. Put some time aside this month to get a glimpse of the honour and cruelty that made the west really wild.

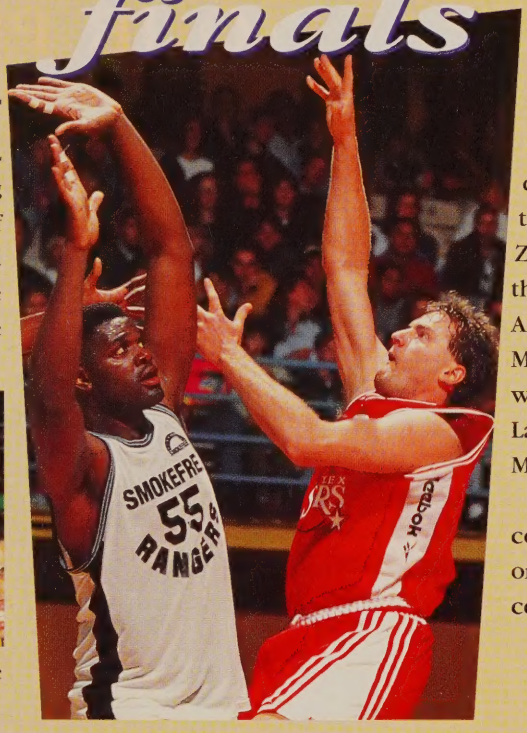
the NATIONAL BASKETBALL LEAGUE finals

SKY'S LIVE FRIDAY NIGHT COVERAGE OF THE LOCAL basketball scene reaches a thrilling conclusion this month with the finals of the Coke NBL. On Friday 23rd September it's semi-finals time! And the Grand Final is also live on Saturday the 24th at 7.40pm.



But which four teams will make the cut?

Twelve teams tipped off in April in the high flying National Basketball League, but as 22 gruelling rounds of preliminary competition draw to a close, two teams continue to stand out: the ASB Nelson Giants and The U-Bix Canterbury Rams. Both teams look set to grab automatic entry to the semis in New Plymouth as the top two qualifiers in the league.

Their respective opponents in the semi-finals will be found on September 17th in two quarter final showdowns between the next four qualifiers – probably the ASB Bank Hawks (Hawkes Bay), Wickliffe Press Moro Nuggetts (Otago), the Caltex Stars (Auckland) and the Central Power Jets (Palmerston North).

You'd have to make a brave bet on any other team making the top six. The nearest contenders, the North Harbour Vikings, not only fell off the pace last month but also lost their legendary coach Doc Ward in the process.

While the four quarter final teams are very even and favourites are hard to pick, Canterbury and Nelson have firmly established themselves as the teams to beat.

1ST SEMI FINAL FRI SEPT 23RD 6.25PM
2ND SEMI FINAL FRI SEPT 23RD 10.00PM
GRAND FINAL SAT SEPT 24TH 7.40PM

The Rams are coached by Keith Mair who, on record, is the best coach in the thirteen year history of the league. Mair is also the New Zealand senior men's team coach. On the floor, Ram hotshots include Americans Kenny Stone and Andrew McGuire and a string of talented kiwis who includes Chris Tupu, Ralph Lattimore, Jason Kyle, Neil Tahi and Mark Graham.

Nelson, coached by former NZ coach Trevor Wright, depend primarily on the strength of 6ft 8in American centre Kenny Perkins ("KP") under the board, the freewheeling flair of 6ft 6in swingman Darryl Johnson ("DJ") in the open court, and the direction of 6ft 3in NZ rep Nenad Vucinic at point guard.

A quick prediction? Why not? Canterbury over Nelson in the grand final by two points. That's one basket, in case you didn't know. See ya there!

TOGETHER ALONE, IN A Crowded House

No Kiwi-inspired band is making waves overseas quite like CROWDED HOUSE. Not only is their sound unique, their success is unique. And one of the key elements in their rise to fame has been the unmistakable creativity of their video clips.

At 6.30pm on Saturday 10th September, you're in for a rare treat. You'll see the CROWDED HOUSE video clip collection, from 1986 to 1994, including the award-winning Four Seasons in One Day piece and the recently released Private Universe, one of the singles featured on the latest CROWDED HOUSE album, Together Alone (already approaching platinum status in the album-selling stakes).

Local film director Kerry Brown deserves much of the credit for the inspired visual content of the new Private Universe clip. The video is the most expensive ever produced in New Zealand and features shifting, multi-layered images, body painted dancers and bizarre junk-art 'instruments'. Locations include the Otara market and White Island. The effect is part dream, part nightmare. Kerry Brown also directed the clip for Four Seasons in One Day.

CROWDED HOUSE has become a New Zealand institution, though it wasn't always so. Overseas fame was well established before the local market opened its arms to the distinctive CROWDED HOUSE style. The release of Together Alone, an album written and recorded at Auckland's rugged Kare Kare beach, is a wonderful excuse to submerge yourself in the expansive, uplifting mood that has made CROWDED HOUSE an international phenomenon. Combine it with SKY's HBO Video Jukebox special for an all-consuming audio visual experience.

THE air new zealand NATIONAL PROVINCIAL CHAMPIONSHIP

You didn't really think the rugby season was over after the tours by the Tricolours and Springboks and the Bledisloe Cup test, did you?

Grab a DB, settle back in front of SKY, and prepare for the climax of a memorable season. It's the Air New Zealand National Provincial Championship culminating in the First Division Grand Final. Brace yourself for another 25 NPC matches on SKY – with one feature match live each week and full replays (none of this "edited highlights" stuff) of the rest, including the semis and finals of each division.

The grand final date? October 16. You gotta be there.

How did we ever manage without this feast of domestic rugby?

Before the new finals format (and, of course, before SKY, which has brought to viewers a cornucopia of live rugby), the season seemed to run out with its tail between its legs. It was like heading off the footy field, steaming with sweat and covered in mud, and knowing the showers would be cold.

And this championship is certain to be even tougher and more palpitating than last year's, largely because there's so much up for grabs for the players.

Put yourself in their boots. The All Black selectors will be there in the stands, scrutinising every player, watching every move, and probably taking a second look on SKY's replays later. Knowing this and facing the 1995 World Cup in South Africa, they have to play their hearts out. If you added together all the All Blacks past, present and future playing in the championships, you could probably field three teams with the silver fern simultaneously.

Out there, especially in the semi-finals and final stage, is real class rugby. You owe it to yourself.

So who's tipped? The same four teams made the semis in the last two years – North Harbour, Otago, Auckland and Waikato. That's the probable line-up again this year but the odds have shortened against Waikato who won in 1992 and Auckland who won last year.

Otago, twice beaten finalists, have a star-strewn team with backs like John Timu and Jeff "Goldie" Wilson with battle-loving forwards like Jamie Joseph and Arran Pene. They will die to avoid falling at the last hurdle for a third consecutive time.

North Harbour are particularly dangerous, not only through the addition of Ian Jones but because of an adventurous and inventive backline led by Frank Bunce and Walter Little. Plenty of people are picking these guys to take out the trophy.

Waikato haven't fired in the early season but they know how to peak for the big games, especially when their precious piece of woodwork is at stake.

That leaves the title holders Auckland. What can you say? Here's a side composed almost entirely of All Blacks and Manu Samoans. And led by Zinzan Brooke, to boot.

Then there's David Kirk's menacing Wellington and exciting Canterbury. Such is the standard of premier division rugby, you can't rule any side out.

The other divisions look more predictable, with Hawkes Bay favoured to gain promotion by winning the second division and Wanganui by winning the third.

Make that a dozen DBs!

How a New Zealand Company withstood the heat in our kitchens.

It wasn't easy. After all, we're a very demanding client.

But in 1976, when we first began our partnership with Mercer Stainless Limited, a New Zealand Company with a hundred year history, they knew what we were after.

They knew we wanted quality kitchens, delivered on time and at internationally competitive prices.

And, with an investment in new technology and on-going staff training, they knew they could get the job done, with innovation and kiwi-ingenuity.

Which is why, in 1994, Mercer Stainless Ltd. is the largest fabricator of stainless steel in New Zealand and Australia, supplying 20% of new McDonald's restaurants worldwide.

Exporting to thirteen countries around the world, from Turkey to Thailand, Hong Kong to Holland and Athens to Australia, where Mercer Stainless are now the sole supplier of kitchens for McDonald's restaurants.

In fact, Mercer's responsiveness to the McDonald's business has seen their manufacturing capacity increase.

It has seen the number of Mercer staff involved in the McDonald's business rise from six in 1980 to eighty in 1994.

And it has enabled Mercer Stainless to offer a more competitive product than many international stainless steel suppliers, including manufacturers in the United States.

Mercer Stainless and McDonald's New Zealand.

Together, we make a great team in the kitchen!

Great News!

AND HOW THEY DO IT .....

New Zealand's Peter Arnett with his portable Flyaway transmitter.

A CNN correspondent and cameraman in a remote part of Africa secure startling film of rhino poachers. Not so long ago, they would have had to return to an airport and arrange for the freight of the film back to the studio. It could take days, even weeks, to arrive. But now they simply unpack hand baggage containing a Flyaway – a portable satellite ground station that transmits the footage to an orbiting satellite – from right there in the field! Within minutes, the story has landed at CNN's headquarters in Atlanta and appears on your TV screen.

Modern news programmes like CNN and the BBC appear to be such slick, well orchestrated presentations when we watch them today. But if you could have sat in the news studio of a major television network ten years ago when it was in full flight for the nightly bulletin, you would have been amazed by the chaotic off-camera activity.

The newsreader gravely read the bulletins while heavy cameras were propelled around the cable-strewn floor like charging bulls. Tense floor managers waved their arms around, assistants tripped over cables, and upstairs the crew worried themselves sick about how they could include some late-arriving footage, especially from overseas.

Film and videotape had to be edited by other departments, which took time in an industry that never has any to spare. And out in the field correspondents cursed because they couldn't get their stories to air, simply because the available technology couldn't handle it.

Today it's completely different, thanks to television's equivalent of Star Wars...

Editing for instance now can be done in the field with relatively lightweight "edit packs". All the correspondent needs is some space to set up and some power to drive the packs. During the Gulf War, New Zealander Peter Arnett was able to transmit unbelievable pictures from his Baghdad hotel in the middle of an air raid just by using his edit pack, Flyaway and a generator.

The technology has got inside the studio too where it has vastly improved the quality of news coverage. Even the cameras move around on robots that "walk" automatically to pre-set positions for favoured shots by scanning bar codes on the walls. There isn't a cable anywhere.

The BBC's main news studio in London can now handle the most complex live programmes. They typically involve live studio presenters, multiple outside broadcasts relayed from BBC vehicles and live pictures from overseas correspondents via satellite. They are all edited together in one step on an electronic console and appear instantly (and even simultaneously) on your screen!

They also use some clever computer tricks in the studio. Hardly any of the "objects" in the opening sequence of the BBC News (left) are real. In fact, only the newsreader is there. Everything else – the BBC logo, "glass" coat of arms, lights, even the desk – are all examples of "virtual reality" in the newsroom, all created by technical tricks.

It sounds complicated but the aim is to provide you, the viewer, with a faster, more comprehensive and more up-to-date news programme. The technology might be fascinating but it remains the servant of the news, not the other way around.

BEST OF THE MONTH

Walt Disney Pictures Presents
RICK MORANIS
IN
HONEY, I BLEW UP THE KID
Includes Special Bonus Featurette:
"The Making of Honey, I Blew Up The Kid"

HONEY I BLEW UP THE KID

1992 G 86 min Sept 4,9,14,19,24 (S)

Rick Moranis, Marcia Strassman, Robert Oliveri, Daniel Shalikar, Joshua Shalikar

Director: Randal Kleiser.

You might think after shrinking his kids and nearly losing them forever in his back yard, eccentric scientist Wayne Szalinski (Rick Moranis) would have learnt his lesson . . . but no!

Here he is, three years later, fooling round with an amazing enlargement ray. Of course his baby son Adam manages to toddle in front of the beam and begins to absorb electricity, growing at a phenomenal rate. With the help of some high voltage wire he shoots up to 112 feet and like a cute, curly headed King Kong thunders his way towards Las Vegas.

Often sequels are disappointing but Honey, I Blew Up the Kid, is every bit as humorous and inventive as the miniaturized original. The special effects, again by master illusionist Thomas Smith (Return of the Jedi, Star Treks II & III, ET, Raiders of the Lost Ark, etc) are brilliant, making the giant size of the baby wholly credible, unlike many other monster pics.

But the show is definitely stolen by baby Adam, a huge part for any two-year-old, so they used two, two-year-olds . . . twin brothers Daniel and Joshua Shalikar. All credit to director Randal Kleiser for working with two terrible two's but apparently by the end of filming the boys were behaving like old pros . . . even learning to say action and cut.

ACCIDENTAL HERO

1992 GA 112 min Sept 17,21,26,30

Dustin Hoffman, Geena Davis, Andy Garcia.

No-one's less heroic than Bernie LaPlante (Dustin Hoffman), a scruffy, small-time con, whose main philosophy is looking after Number One, but when a passenger jet crashes in front of Bernie's car, he reluctantly steps out of character and into the burning wreck.

One of the people he rescues is award-winning reporter Gale Gayley (Geena Davis). In the smoke and darkness, she can hardly see Bernie, who disappears quickly afterwards having stolen Gale's wallet.

Gale runs a series of stories on the mystery rescuer which so capture the imagination of the hero hungry public that her TV station offers $1,000,000 to the "Angel of Flight 104" if he'll come forward and prove his identity.

But Bernie's been jailed for selling stolen credit cards and can't collect the reward. Enter John Bubber (Andy Garcia) a real war hero and usually an honest man, who steps in to take the credit and the money.

True, Bubber uses his fame and wealth for noble ends but he's still a fake, while no-one believes a sleaze like Bernie and Gale the cynical reporter is rapidly falling for the wrong guy.

Accidental Hero is an off-beat, low-key comedy which deals with some interesting questions. It won't have you rolling off the sofa with mirth, but it will get you thinking about the nature of heroism and the role of the press in its creation and destruction. It's certainly more subtle than the average US comedy . . . which is what you would expect from Stephen Frears, director of films like My Beautiful Launderette, Sammy and Rosie Get Laid and The Grifters.

TIMOTHY HUTTON LARA FLYNN BOYLE
DWIGHT SCHULTZ OLIVER PLATT and FAYE DUNAWAY
THE TEMP
She ran his life... then destroyed it.

THE TEMP

1993 R13 93 min Sept 11,15,19,23,28 (S)

Timothy Hutton, Lara Flynn Boyle, Faye Dunaway.

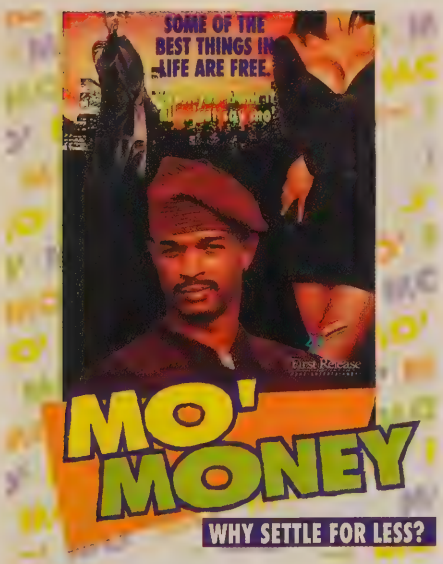
"Just because I'm paranoid doesn't mean they're not out to get me." With psychiatric help, Peter Derns (Timothy Hutton) has just about overcome his obsessive jealousy. But he's separated from his wife and son, his executive position at Mrs Appleby's Baked Goods is under threat and his incompetent male assistant has just gone off on paternity leave.

Then along comes the perfect Temporary Assistant... Kris Bolin (Lara Flynn Boyle). She's efficient, intelligent, gorgeous and obviously attracted to Peter. She's also ruthlessly ambitious, as Peter discovers when his rivals start turning up dead.

Is Ms Bolin out to wreck his marriage and take over his life? Is she using him as a stepping stone for her own career? Or are they both pawns in someone else's power game?

The Temp keeps us guessing right to the end with two female suspects... the all too perfect Kris and company president Charlene Towne (Faye Dunaway), another woman worth watching.

The femme fatale is certainly in vogue at present. HBO has recently featured deadly ladies in movies like The Hand that Rocks the Cradle, Black Widow, Body of Evidence and Basic Instinct proving once again wimmin can do anything.



MO MONEY

1992 R13 86 min Sept 3,9,14,19,22 (S)
Damon Wayans, Marion Wayans, Stacey Dash, Joe Santos.
Director: Peter Macdonald.

Damon Wayans is one happenin' brother. He leapt to fame as a writer, producer and star of the Emmy winning TV comedy series In Living Colour. He starred with Bruce Willis in The Last Boy Scout and has also appeared on HBO in movies such as I'm Gonna Git You Sucka, Roxanne, Earth Girls Are Easy and Punchline.

The action comedy Mo Money gives him plenty of scope for his writing and acting talents along with his younger brother Marlon (the youngest of 10 siblings) making his film debut.

Damon and Marlon play Johnny and Seymour Stewart, two bit hustlers going nowhere until Johnny falls for an upmarket young lady Amber Evans (Stacey Dash) and cons himself a job in the mailroom of the credit card company where she works.

Can Johnny go straight and get the girl or will the credit cards prove too much temptation and will he become caught up in the much bigger, more dangerous schemes going on inside the company?

Mo Money has a lot to offer... some excellent comic moments (especially the scene in the jewellery store), romance, great interplay between the real life brothers and plenty of bullet shooting, car chasing, baddy bashing action.

Plus Mo Money offers a brilliant soundtrack, written by R&B legends Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis, performed by artists including Luther Vandross, Janet Jackson, Big Daddy Kane and Public Enemy.

OUT ON A LIMB

1992 GA 79 min Sept 18,23,27 (S)
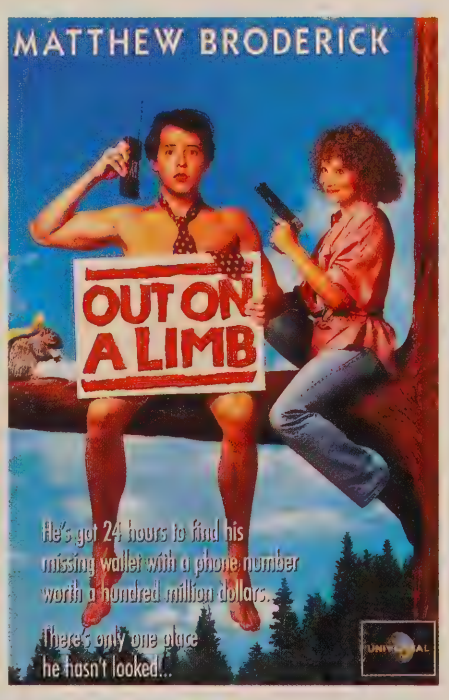
Matthew Broderick, Jeffrey Jones, Heidi Kling, Courtney Peldon.
Director: Francis Veber.

Another action comedy, Out On A Limb, stars Matthew Broderick as Bill Campbell, a hotshot New York stockbroker who's in the middle of a multi-million dollar deal when he receives a distress call from his young sister Marci (Courtney Peldon). Marci's convinced their stepfather Mayor Van Der Havben and his fratricidal twin brother (both played by Jeffrey Jones) are at each others throats for stolen money and revenge.

On his way back to the small logging town of Buzzsaw, Bill's car, wallet and clothes are stolen by Sally, a wild redhead (Heidi Kling) and he has to accept help from two moronic, boozed out hillbilly brothers, both named Jim. Lucky for Bill this isn't Deliverance!

Somehow Bill must save his sister, recover his property, close his deal, with his stepfather's evil twin and win Sally's heart . . . all within 24 hours; so the movie, in the style of a French farce, moves along at breakneck speed. However we are allowed the odd breather by the narrative device, which is young Marci telling the story to her primary school class as a "what I did in the holidays" story to beat them all.



MATTHEW BRODERICK
OUT ON A LIMB
He's got 24 hours to find his missing wallet with a phone number worth a hundred million dollars.
There's only one place he hasn't looked...

SHORT TIME

1991 GY 93 min Sept 24,29 (S)
Dabney Coleman, Matt Frewer, Teri Garr.
Director: Gregg Champion.

You've probably seen films where an ageing cop, near retirement, is desperate to finish his last days with his body intact. In this police drama/action comedy, the cautious veteran is Burt Simpson (Dabney Coleman) but there's a twist. When Burt has a medical examination for insurance purposes his blood sample is mixed up with another patient's, a man with a fatal disease and Burt, who's lived all his life for the future is now told he doesn't have one.

But there's more bad news. Burt discovers his police insurance policy only pays out big dollars if he's killed in the line of duty. Burt's so determined to send his son to Harvard that he volunteers for double shifts in the toughest part of town and sets about getting himself killed.

But Burt quickly finds that getting killed isn't as easy as it looks. He takes inordinate risks and emerges a decorated and very much alive hero. He also learns that living for today is far more rewarding than his previous repressed existence, even if today is all you have.

Most dramas generate their excitement by having the hero trying to avoid danger and death. Short Time creates its plentiful thrills and laughter by having Burt deliberately court disaster.

OTHER HIGHLIGHTS

Clint Eastwood's, gritty, award-winning western Unforgiven, reviewed earlier in SkyWatch is compulsory viewing.

Woody Allen followers will be interested in his 21st feature film Shadows and Fog (1992) a moody number, shot in black and white, apparently a tribute to the great German films of the 1920s. More thoughtful than funny.

And for Bogart fans two classics, The Caine Mutiny (1954) based on Herman Wouk's famous World War II novel and In A Lonely Place (1950) in which Bogie plays an unstable, possibly murderous screen-writer.

THURSDAY COMEDY...

If you're suffering from winter 'flus and blues what you need is a good dose of comedy. HBO has plenty of laughs in store, especially on the Thursday Night Comedy at 8.30pm.

Here you meet Eddie Murphy as The Distinguished Gentleman, Holly Hunter and Nicholas Cage busy Raising Arizona, some particularly undistinguished geeks in Revenge of the Nerds III, a star cast including Kevin Kline, Sally Field, Whoopi Goldberg and Robert Downey Jnr in the spoof Soapdish and the comical crew of Carry on Columbus.

So don't forget to prescribe yourself a course of laughter with the Thursday Night Comedy at 8.30pm, only on HBO.

SCHEDULING CHANGES

Responding to numerous requests from subscribers, HBO is moving it's primetime movies back to a later start time. During the week the primetime movie will start at 8.30pm. On Saturday and Sunday nights there will be two primetime slots, one at 8.00pm and the other at 9.30pm or 10.00pm depending on the length of the earlier movie.

Jaffas Showtime will screen at 7.30pm on Saturday, immediately before the Premiere Gold Movie, while Box Office America will premiere on Wednesday nights at 8.00pm, two days sooner than previously.

For all the contemporary music fans, HBO Video Jukebox moves back to 6.30pm on Saturday night. Keep an eye out for the Crowded House Special, and we introduce a new music show... SKY Concert Gold. The first concert featuring 110 minutes of John Farnham, plays on Friday 23rd September.

We're grateful for your feedback and hope these changes will enhance your enjoyment of HBO.

NOW READ ON ...

THE SKY TUNING GUIDE

With more and more TV channels now available, it's not surprising that keeping track of them on your television remotes is becoming more difficult – and it's the same on your SKY remote.

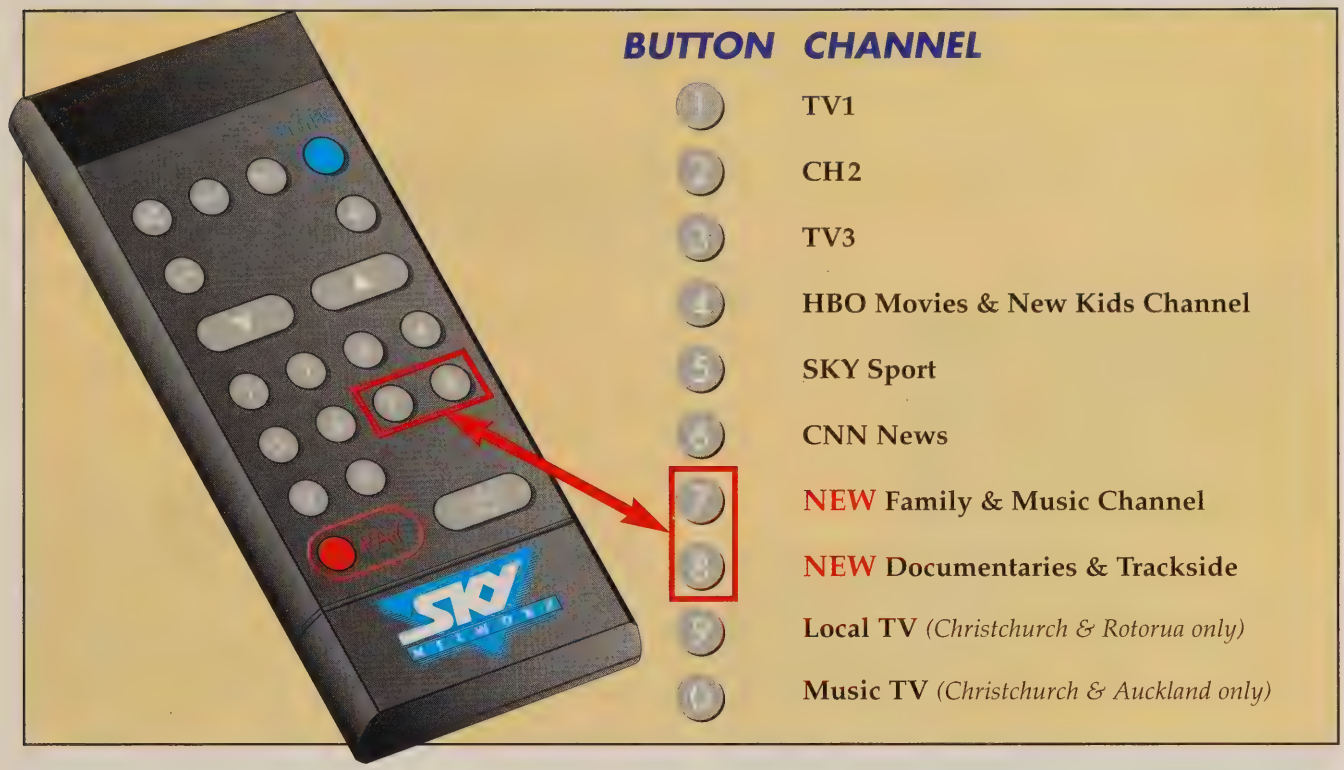
By the time SKY's new channels are all launched towards the end of 1994, many of you will be able to view up to 10 different channels, and therefore it is important that you simplify where channels can be found on your SKY remote.

For example, in your SkyWatch magazine, our new programmes will be listed under the channel numbers as indicated below. Therefore, to make it easier we recommend you set the channels on your remote to match the new listings in your next SkyWatch Magazine.

NOTE: Example above is a guide only. Any content shown does not necessarily relate to actual programme content.

As you can see, unless you can easily find the correct programmes on these channel buttons, things could get a little confusing.

To avoid this confusion, we recommend that you take a few minutes to set up your SKY remote like this. (And, by the way the whole process can be done with your remote).

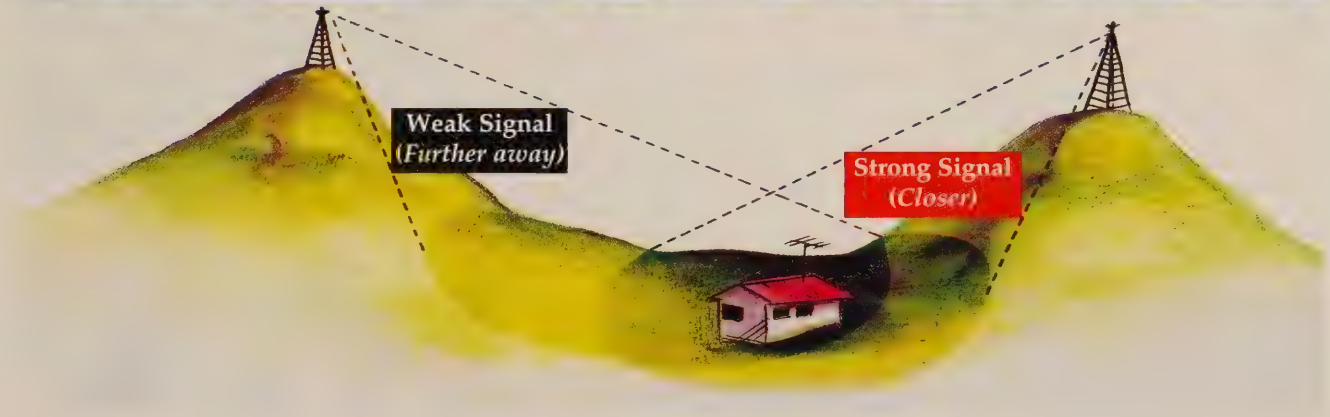


BUTTON CHANNEL
1 TV1
2 CH2
3 TV3
4 HBO Movies & New Kids Channel
5 SKY Sport
6 CNN News
7 NEW Family & Music Channel
8 NEW Documentaries & Trackside
9 Local TV (Christchurch & Rotorua only)
0 Music TV (Christchurch & Auckland only)

Shortly we will be sending you this list on a sticker to put on the back of your remote. It will remind you which channels go with which buttons. In the meantime, most of you probably have the correct channels on buttons 1-6, but the last 4 may be different. The following sections give you simple instructions on how to set up your remote for the new channels. (Section 3). If you don't yet receive one or more of the channels that are available in your area, we will also show you how to tune them in. (Section 4).

Some of these instructions vary slightly, depending on which region you live in. So in Section 1, we assign a colour code to your region to make sure you get the right instructions later on.

SECTION 1 – FINDING YOUR AREA COLOUR CODE



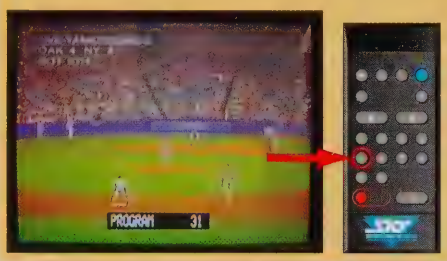
SKY sends you its pictures via tall transmitter towers, high on the hills above your area.

Some cities, like Auckland or Wellington, are covered by more than one transmitter. Depending on where you live you could receive your best pictures from any of 2 or 3 different transmitter towers.

That's why the purpose of this section is to identify which transmitter gives you the best picture. The following simple steps will give you a colour code that represents that transmitter. You will need this colour code in Section 3. Your existing SKY channels should already be tuned in to your best transmitter. The SKY installer would have done this.
So start with these simple steps below.

STEP 1

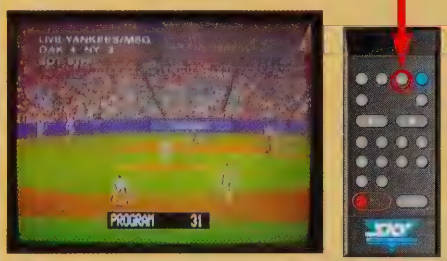
Turn on SKY TV as usual and switch to the Sports channel.



Handy Tips
It should be on 5 on your Sky remote.

STEP 2

Push the ◯ button on your remote. Take note of the number that comes up after the word "Program"



Handy Tips
Don't hold the button down. Just push it quickly once and the display will stay on screen for a few seconds.

STEP 3

Write the 2 digit number in this box (BOX A)
This is your Program Number for the SKY Sport Channel.
From now on we will call this your "P Number"

BOX A

P Number: →

STEP 4

Now follow the arrow to the table (above right). Find the region in which you live, the P Number you wrote in BOX A above, and your resulting colour code.

If you can't find your P Number here then your colour code is PINK.

It is not important to remember the name of your best transmitter. They are listed only for your interest.

Region You Live In	Sport Channel P Number	Colour Code	Best Transmitter
Auckland	12	Light Blue	Waiatarua
	31	Dark Blue
	20	Pink	Pine Hill
	33	Dk Green
	18	Pink	Remuera
	52	Red
Waikato	32	Orange	Mt Te Aroha
Bay Of Plenty	27	Lt Green	Pukeputo
	32	Orange	Mt Te Aroha
	34	Purple	Kopukairua
Hawkes Bay	33	Burgundy	Mt Erin
Manawatu	34	Grey	Wharite
Wellington	32	Orange	Kaukau
	34	Yellow	Fitzherbert/ Baxters Knob
	47	Tan	Ngarara
Canterbury	34	Brown	Sugarloaf
Dunedin	32	Orange	Mt Cargill
Southland	34	Grey	Hedgehope

STEP 5

Write your colour code in this box (BOX B) – e.g. Dark Blue

BOX B

Colour Code:

If your colour code is PINK then go straight to step 6.

Otherwise turn to page 9 and write your colour code into BOX B at the top of the page. You'll need it later.

Then begin Section 2 on page 27.

STEP 6

If your colour code is PINK, then stop here and please phone SKY's Tuning Hotline on 0800 800 759.

Tell the operator that your colour code is PINK.

You have a particular model of decoder that requires tuning instructions over the telephone.

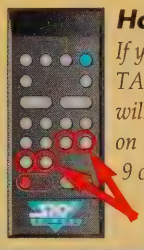
SECTION 2 – THE TAB CHANNEL

One of SKY's new channels will be sharing a button on your remote with Trackside (the TAB's horse racing channel).
If you want to see this new SKY channel, you will need to have the TAB channel tuned INTO YOUR SKY REMOTE (not just your TV remote). Some of you may already have it tuned in, which is great, because you'll save yourself a bit of time.
But you need to do these next few steps first, whether you have the TAB channel or not.

STEP 1

If you definitely have the TAB channel on your SKY remote, jump ahead to Step 4.

If you don't, or are not sure, carry on to Step 2.



Handy Tips
If you have the TAB channel, it will probably be on buttons 7, 8, 9 or 0

STEP 2

If you are not sure, try finding the TAB channel by looking at each channel (buttons 0–9) on your remote. If you find it, jump ahead to Step 4.

If you still cannot find it carry on to Step 3.

Handy Tips
The TAB channel looks like this screen on the left or the one above in Step 1.

STEP 3

If you definitely do not have the TAB channel then write "55" in this box (Box C).

Then go on to section 3.

STEP 4

Switch to the TAB channel (if you haven't already) and push the [illegible] button on your remote as you did earlier for the Sport Channel.

Again, take note of the number that comes up after the word "Program"

Handy Tips
Don't hold the button down. Just push it quickly once and the display will stay on screen for a few seconds.

STEP 5

Write the 2 digit number in the box below (Box C).

Then go on to Section 3.

BOX C

Copy this number into Box C at the top of page 29. You'll need it later.

SECTION 3 - SETTING UP YOUR SKY REMOTE

In Section 1 you found the P Number (Program Number) for the Sport channel and used it to identify your colour code. Some of you also found the P Number for the TAB channel in Section 2.

Before you get into this section you need to understand that a P Number is just like a label.

To illustrate ... Imagine that you could put a whole TV channel on one video tape. So that for every channel there is, you have a separate video tape. Then you stack them on a shelf and give each one a label (a P Number) to tell them apart. Now imagine you have a special remote control that will play any of your 10 favourite tapes whenever you like ... as long as the remote knows the labels (the P Numbers) of your ten favourites.

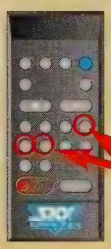
10 favourite channels available on your SKY remote. Buttons 0-9.

That is all we are trying to do in this section ... make sure that the ten "favourite" P Numbers in your remote are correct, so that all the right channels come up on the right buttons. The following simple steps will set up your remote.

But remember, although there are 10 channel buttons on your remote, at present you probably have less than 10 channels available in your area. So one or two of your favourite 10 P Numbers may be empty, like a blank video tape.

STEP 1

Switch to any one of SKY's existing channels.



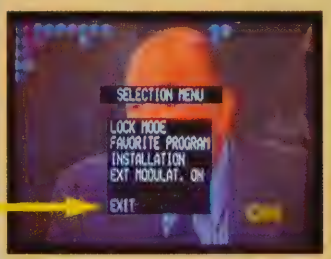
Handy Tips

They should be on 4, 5 and 6 on your SKY remote

STEP 2

Quickly push the ENTER button.

The "Selection Menu" will come up.



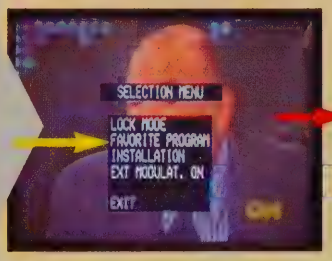
Handy Tips

Note that "Exit" is flashing. If you wish to get back to normal at any stage, just push "Enter". Then start this section again.

STEP 3

Use the ( ) and ( ) buttons to move up the menu until "Favourite Program" is flashing.

Push the buttons quickly. Don't hold them down.



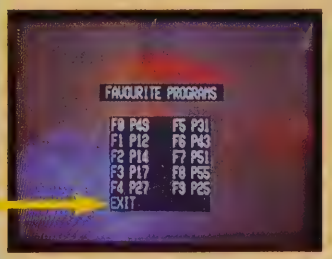
Handy Tips

This is the item on the menu we want. It allows us to check which P Numbers make up our "favourite" list.

STEP 4

Quickly push ENTER again.

The "Favourite Program" table will come up.



Handy Tips

Note again that "Exit" is flashing. If you wish to get back to normal at any stage, just push "Enter". Then start this section again.

BOX B		Colour Code (from Section 1)	BOX C		TAB Channel P Number (from Section 2)

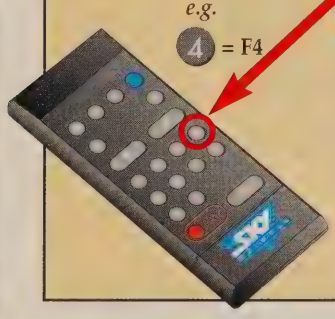
This is what the table means:

The "F (Favourite) Numbers" match the buttons on your SKY remote.

e.g. 4 = F4



F0 Pxx	F5 Pxx
F1 Pxx	F6 Pxx
F2 Pxx	F7 Pxx
F3 Pxx	F8 Pxx
F4 Pxx	F9 Pxx
EXIT

The P Numbers are the labels of the 10 "favourite" channels currently loaded into your remote. One for each button (0–9).

STEP 5

Leave the table on your TV screen. Now look at the tables on this page. They are colour coded. Find the table that has the same colour code as the one you wrote in BOX B above (from Section 1).

Circle the whole table. It is yours.

STEP 6

The P Number beside "F8" in your table may be missing.

If so, then in the space write the 2 digit number you entered above in BOX C (from Section 2). Then turn to Step 7.

If the number is not missing then just turn to Step 7.

STEP 7

The table you circled on the previous page is your NEW "Favourite Program Table".

The idea is to change the P Numbers on your screen until they match the new ones in the table you circled.

Compare the two tables. How many P Numbers do you have to change? Any?

NOTE:

In your new table there are no P Numbers beside F1, F2 or F3. That is because we think you have these P Numbers correct already and we don't want you to change them.

STEP 8

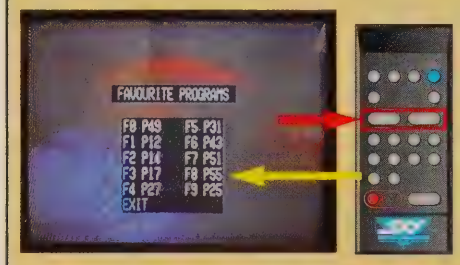
Take careful note of all the P Numbers you have to change (if any) to match the table you just circled.

IF YOU DON'T HAVE TO CHANGE ANY then just push ENTER and jump ahead to Step12.

Otherwise carry on to Step 9 to make the changes.

STEP 9

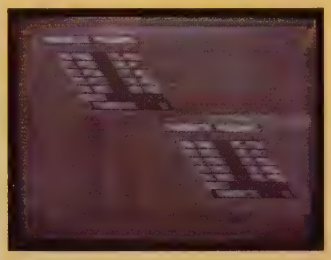
Use the and buttons to move up or down the table to any P Numbers you have to change.



Handy Tips

The P number will flash on and off when selected. This means it is ready to be changed.

Notice that the pictures behind the table change as you move up and down the table. You are actually "Changing Channels".

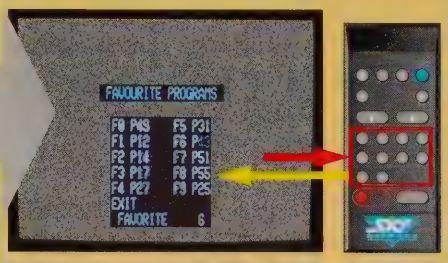


Handy Tips

Don't worry if the screen goes fuzzy or strange on one of the P numbers. It just means that there is no channel tuned in under that P Number label yet. The table is still on screen and you can still change it, even if you can't read it. If you have to, unplug your aerial for a moment to read the table clearly.

STEP 10

Move to the P Number you need to change and simply use the numbered buttons on your remote to push in the new 2 digit P Number.



Handy Tips

The pictures behind the table will suddenly change to whatever channel is labelled with the new P Number. Don't worry if the picture changes to static or fuzz. We will fix this in the next section.

STEP 11

Change any other P Numbers that need changing, then push ENTER when you are finished.

Handy Tips

The screen returns to normal (check your aerial is plugged in again). Change channels as usual.

STEP 12

The P Numbers on your remote are now set up correctly, and you should find all the channels (that are available in your area) on the correct buttons.

Check this by pushing each of the channel buttons (0–9) on your remote and see if the programmes that come up match this table.

1 TV1	6 SKY News
2 CH2	7 Blank (will be Family & Music)
3 TV3	8 TAB (will be Documentaries & Trackside)
4 SKY Movies	9 Local TV (only in Christchurch & Rotorua) Otherwise Blank
5 SKY Sport	0 Music TV (only in Christchurch & Auckland) Otherwise Blank

If the above programmes on 8 or 0 are missing on your remote, then you need to tune them in.
GO ON TO SECTION 4.

Otherwise you have finished. Congratulations. Watch out for the new programmes on button 8 from October 1.

SECTION 4 – FINDING ANY MISSING PROGRAMMES

You only need to do this section if you still cannot find the TAB or a music programme if one is available in your area.

i.e. you have static or the wrong programme on buttons 8 or 0.

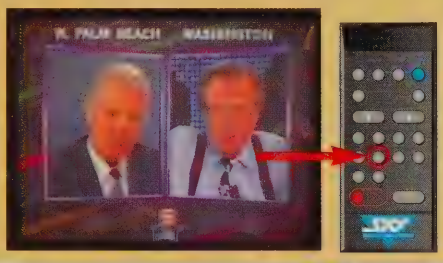
The reason for this is that the missing programme has probably never been tuned into your decoder.

You can use the following steps to find any missing programme, but we will use the TAB as an example as you need this to get SKY's new programming on button 8.

If you are searching for a music programme, check it is on air first. SKY cannot guarantee their picture quality.

STEP 1

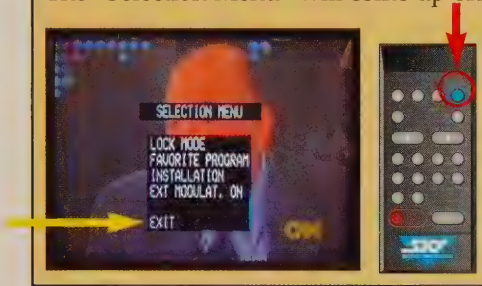
Select the SKY News Channel



Handy Tips
It should be on 6 on your remote.

STEP 2

Quickly press the ENTER button.
The "Selection Menu" will come up on screen



Handy Tips
Note that "Exit" is flashing. If you wish to get back to normal at any stage, just push "Enter". Then start this section again.

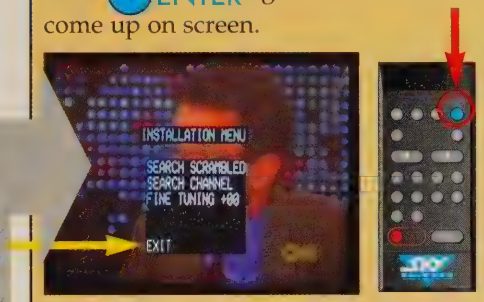
STEP 3

Use the and buttons to move up the menu until "Installation" is flashing.

Handy Tips
This is the item on the menu we want. It allows us to "Install" (find) new channels.

STEP 4

Press ENTER again. The "Installation Menu" will come up on screen.



Handy Tips
Again "Exit" is flashing. Just push "Enter" if you want to get back to normal at any time.

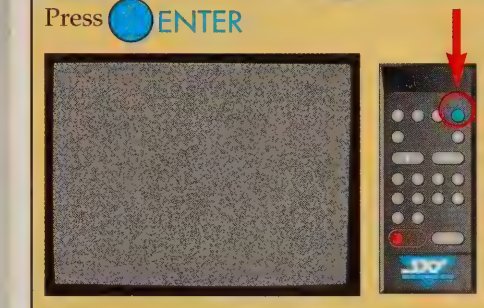
STEP 5

Use the and buttons to move up the menu until "Search Channel" is flashing.

Handy Tips
The process of searching for a new channel is now ready to start.

STEP 6

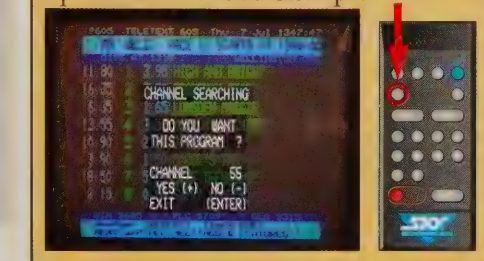
Press ENTER



Handy Tips
Screen turns to static as it leaves the News channel and searches for other channels.

STEP 7

If you have to, push the button once every 5 seconds until the "Channel Searching" menu comes up on screen with a clear picture behind it.

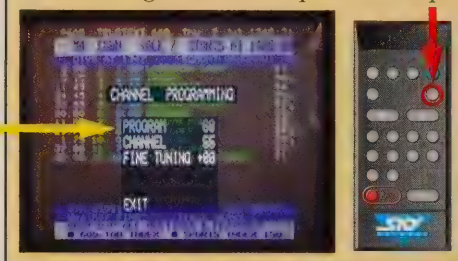


Handy Tips
The decoder has then found a TV programme. It may be strong and clear or it could be weak and fuzzy.

STEP 8

If this is the programme you are looking for (in this case, the TAB) and the picture is clear, then push (yes), and go on to Step 9.

Otherwise go back to Step 7 and keep looking.



Handy Tips

The "Channel Programming" menu will now come up on screen. The "Program" line will be flashing.

STEP 9

Ignore the word "Channel" on the screen and the number beside it. This is not referring to the channel numbers on your remote or a P Number.

STEP 10

You have found the missing programme. Now you just need to label it with the correct P Number so you can find it on your remote permanently.

What is the correct P Number?

In the case of the TAB, we want it to be on button 8 on our remote. So you need to look back at the colour coded table you circled in Section 3, find F8 and the P Number beside it (it should be 55). Likewise, for the music programme look at the P Number beside F0.

This is the P Number to label the programme with.

e.g. for subscribers coded Brown:

TAB P Number is 55.

Music programme P Number is 56.

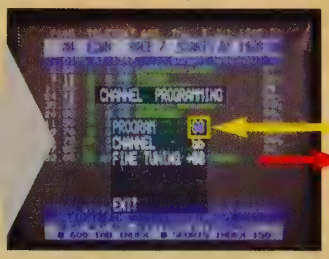
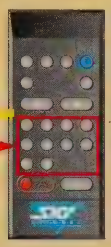
Take careful note of the P Number for the programme you have found and go on to Step 11.

STEP 11

Now, using the numbered buttons on your remote, push in the 2 digit P Number required.





Handy Tips

The "Fine Tuning" line will then be flashing. You can adjust your picture using the + and - buttons but this should not be necessary.

NOTE: If you make a mistake then push until the "Program" line is flashing, and try again.

STEP 12

When the new P number is in place, push ENTER to store it. The screen will revert back to the "Installation Menu".

Handy Tips

"Search Channel" will be flashing.

STEP 13

If you wish to find another missing programme, go back to Step 6. Otherwise use the button to move down the menu until "Exit" is flashing.

STEP 14

Press ENTER

All your channels should now be tuned in on the correct buttons.

Congratulations!!

Watch out for something new on SKY 8 from October 1.

YOUR EXCLUSIVE WINE SHOP

Ron Small,
Cellar Director

a salute to Spring

With the appearance of September's daffodils comes the urge to push winter into the background and celebrate the impending arrival of warmer weather. This month you can raise a toast to Spring with two stylish Chardonnays – one from Morton Estate in New Zealand, and another from the Upper Hunter region of New South Wales. And you can plump up your cellar for the barbecue season with two flavoursome Australian reds.

These four wines are available by single-variety case, as a mixed case (3 of each variety) or you can make your own specific selection.

SkyCellar promises no extra charges, free insurance and free delivery anywhere in New Zealand.

Morton Estate White Label Chardonnay 1993

Made from a very small vintage of Hawkes Bay grapes, this wine has been aged for 9 months in French Oak. You'll enjoy its rich, soft character, concentrated fruit flavours and lingering finish. Excellent value for a good NZ Chardonnay.

Rosemount Estate Chardonnay 1993

A product of a very good vintage in the Upper Hunter region of New South Wales, this elegant wine was aged in French oak and has a very pleasant butterscotch aroma, with soft, rich, complex fruit flavours.

McWilliams Estate Hanwood Shiraz 1993

The latest addition to the Hanwood range, this wine has just been released in New Zealand. Nine months ageing in French and American oak barrels has integrated wood features with typical spicy fruit flavours to create a memorable, exciting wine. A genuine bargain at this price.

Renmano Chairman's Selection Cabernet Sauvignon 1992

This full-bodied wine has been aged in new American and German oak barrels to create intense berry aromas and a soft blackcurrant flavour with pleasing oak overtones. An excellent wine at an exceptionally good price.

Prayer to the Great Spirit

Individually numbered by hand with 24 carat gold.

Shown smaller than actual size of 20.3cm (8") in diameter.

The American Indian Heritage Foundation Museum proudly presents its first-ever collector plate by world-renowned Western artist Paul Calle.

It is a ritual as old as the land itself. The Sioux warrior in perfect harmony with the forces of nature, summons the Great Spirit to look with favour on the people—to provide for and protect them.

Only an artist of rare talent and vision could capture the mystery and drama of this centuries-old ceremony. Paul Calle, whose works are eagerly persued by knowledgeable collectors of Western art, is such an artist.

Prayer to the Great Spirit is crafted in fine porcelain, then hand-numbered and bordered in 24 carat gold. This imported limited edition collector plate also bears the artists's signature mark.

Priced at just $55 (including G.S.T.), it will be closed forever after just 45 firing days. Available only from Franklin Mint.

SATISFACTION GUARANTEED.
If you wish to return any Franklin Mint purchase, you may do so within 30 days of your receipt of that purchase for replacement, credit or refund.
